

Robyn Collier

TASMANIA AUSTRALIA

Wednesday 1 February – Monday 13 February 2023

Thirteen spectacular days of painting, sketching and exploring the picturesque regions of Tasmania, Australia. Tasmania is a place of wild and beautiful landscapes, wonderful wine and food and a rich history and will be a delight to paint. Robyn Collier will show you how to capture the best of Tasmania in oil paint. This will be a wonderful opportunity to discover these wild places, delightful towns and enjoy the exceptional scenery and history of the region.

Robyn Collier has over 45 years of painting experience and is regarded as one of Australia's foremost wilderness artists – preferring to paint the natural world and aspects of it. She has conducted workshops throughout Australia and New Zealand for the past 15 years, published many articles, held over 30 exhibitions and made numerous television appearances. Robyn's work has won multiple awards and is in prestigious collections in most countries around the world. She has taken part in many 'Artist-in-Residence' programs – both on the mainland of Australia and many remote islands. Robyn's philosophy is simple – "I want to show people the magic of the natural world through my work."

Travelling with oil paints: "I have travelled overseas and interstate many times with my oil paints and I have found quite effective ways of moving around and flying with them. Once you have booked on the workshop, I will forward my list of tips for travelling with oil paint". Water based oils are welcome.

ITINERARY

DAY 1 Wednesday 1 February, 2023

Tullah

Workshop departs from either Launceston city at 11.30am or Launceston airport at midday. We will transfer to beautiful Tullah, located close to Cradle Mountain. Tullah is a peaceful former mining town, surrounded by a beautiful landscape of lakes, rivers and mountain ranges. This evening we will enjoy welcome drinks and an included dinner.

DAY 2 Thursday 2 February, 2023

Tullah

This morning Robyn we will find a great painting location in Tullah and complete a demonstration. Following this, Robyn will assist individual workshop members with their painting. Regular critique sessions are held throughout the tour. This evening there will be an included dinner.

DAY 3 Friday 3 February, 2023

Tullah

Today we travel to Cradle Mountain for a day of painting. The area was first surveyed in the 1820's and named for the cradle shape of the mountain. The first tourist chalet was built in 1912 and the Overland Track was completed in 1935. Cradle Mountain is home to some adorable wildlife with pademelons, wallabies and wombats all spotted regularly within the park. This evening there will be an included dinner.

DAY 4 Saturday 4 February, 2023

Tullah

A full day of painting at Tullah. Robyn will find some wonderful subjects for you to paint. This evening there will be an included dinner.

DAY 5 Sunday 5 February, 2023

St Helens

Today we travel to St Helens, the largest town on the northeast coast of Tasmania, on Georges Bay. St Helen's is the gateway to the world famous, Bay of Fires. Life in St Helens is all about the ocean. The beaches, bays and estuaries here are perfect for painting. This evening there will be an included dinner.

DAY 6 Monday 6 February, 2023

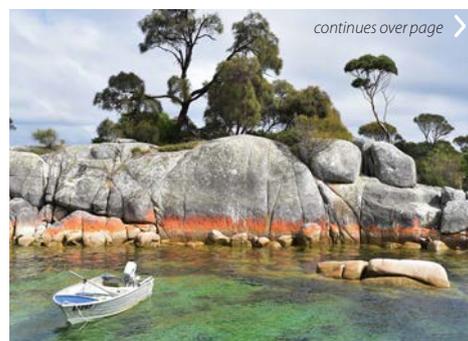

St Helens

This morning Robyn will commence with a demonstration and then assist workshop members individually with their work in the beautiful town of St Helens.

DAY 7 Tuesday 7 February, 2023

St Helens

Today we travel to the Bay of Fires for a day of painting. The Bay of Fires is famous for its crystal-clear waters, white sandy beaches and orange lichen-covered granite boulders and is one of Tasmania's most popular conservation reserves. The Bay of Fires extends along the coast from Binalong Bay in the south to Eddystone Point in the north. Its name refers to the Aboriginal fires spotted by Captain Tobias Furneaux when he sailed past in 1773, but it could also apply to the brilliant orange lichen that grows on the granite boulders lining the bay.

DAY 8 Wednesday 8 February, 2023

St Helens

Today we travel to Scamander and the surrounding areas. Scamander is a small town at the mouth of the Scamander River. Robyn will find a great subject for the days painting session. This evening there will be an included dinner.

DAY 9 Thursday 9 February, 2023

Freycinet National Park

This morning we will travel to the seaside holiday village of Coles Bay on the edge of the world-renowned Freycinet National Park for a painting session. It sits beneath stunning, sheer pink granite mountains overlooking the calm, clear water of Oyster Bay. The uncrowded beaches and crystal-clear waters offer the ideal location for painting. We then travel the short distance to Freycinet lodge.

DAY 10 Friday 10 February, 2023

Freycinet National Park

A full day of painting in Freycinet National Park, home to dramatic pink granite peaks, secluded bays, white sandy beaches and abundant birdlife. Situated on Tasmania's beautiful east coast, the park occupies most of the Freycinet Peninsula.

DAY 11 Saturday 11 February, 2023

Freycinet National Park

Today we travel by boat and see the waters surrounding Freycinet National Park and Wineglass Bay. Keep a look out for sea eagles roosting on the granite cliffs, pods of dolphins surfing the bow wave and cormorants plus Australian fur seals hauling out along the coast. Join in the search for whales as they migrate from September to December. On the cruise we will enjoy an included ploughman's style lunch.

DAY 12 Sunday 12 February, 2023

Freycinet National Park

Freycinet National Park offers a wide variety of vegetation including wetland, coastal dunes, dry eucalypt forest and orchids that bloom all year round. Robyn will perform a demonstration and then it will be your turn to paint while Robyn assists tour members with their painting. Tonight, there will be an included dinner to celebrate the wonderful time we have had painting in Tasmania.

DAY 13 Monday 13 February, 2023

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Payment Conditions:

A reservation deposit of $500 per person is required at the time of booking. Final payment is due 60 days prior to the date of departure.

2. Alteration to Workshop Vacation Price:

The Painting Workshop Vacation price is subject to change in the event of unforeseen circumstances and changes in the cost of travel and accommodation services. Should any increase in the Workshop Vacation price be unacceptable to the registered member, a full refund of monies paid will be made.

3. Cancellation and Amendments:*

Cancellations received in writing 61 or more days from the date of departure will result in a cancellation fee of $500 per person. Cancellations received 60 or fewer days before departure will result in a loss of all monies paid. There are no refunds for services not utilized while on a Workshop Vacation. Travel insurance is highly recommended to cover Workshop members for the consequences of unforeseen events during the Workshop Vacation and for cancellation fees that could result from illness, accident, death or other contingencies. Once a booking has been confirmed, one amendment to travel arrangements will be made free-of-charge. Subsequent changes to travel arrangements will incur an amendment fee of $25 per change in addition to supplier charges.

4. Minimum Workshop Vacation Numbers:

Each Painting Workshop Vacation has been priced on the basis of a minimum number of members travelling. In the event that fewer than the minimum number of members have confirmed their booking 60 days from the date of commencement, Travelrite International reserves the right to cancel the Workshop Vacation, giving a full refund of monies paid, or to offer arrangements to proceed with the Workshop Vacation at a modified price.

5. General:

In the unlikely event that the Workshop tutor is unable to perform his or her duties due to unforeseen contingencies, Travelrite International reserves the right to substitute another artist as tutor or to continue with the Workshop Vacation as planned or to provide a cash refund to Workshop members equivalent to the value of the Workshop leadership. International Artist Painting Workshops can involve a considerable amount of walking and stair-climbing in the regions visited and it is important that all members have a level of physical fitness that allows them to take part in these activities without the need of assistance from others.

6. Tax Considerations:

If you regularly sell your own paintings, you may fall into the semi-professional or professional category for taxation purposes and the tour cost may be tax-deductible. We recommend that you seek the advice of a qualified tax adviser.

7. Responsibilities:

Travelrite International Pty Ltd., their agents, officers, affiliates, and/or suppliers of services pursuant to or in connection with these Workshop Vacations shall act only as agents in making arrangements for hotels, transportation, restaurants, or any other service and do not assume any liability whatsoever for any injury, damage, death, loss, accident or delay to person or property due to an act of negligence or of default of any hotel, carrier, restaurant, company or person rendering any services included in the Workshops, or by act of God. Further, no responsibilities are accepted for any damage or delay due to sickness, pilferage, labor disputes, machinery breakdown, quarantine, government restraints, weather, terrorism, or other causes beyond their control. No responsibility is accepted for any additional expenses, omissions, delays, rerouting or acts of any government or authority. Baggage remains at owner's risk throughout the Workshop Vacation. The passage contract in use by the carriers concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the carriers and the purchasers of these Painting Workshop Vacations and/or the passengers. The right is reserved to withdraw any Painting Workshop Vacation and/or to make such changes in the Painting Workshop Vacation as may be found desirable for the convenience of the parties and the proper carrying-out of the Painting Workshop Vacation. Registration for any Painting Workshop Vacation constitutes a contract which shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Victoria, Australia and any legal action must be taken in the State of Victoria.
